

NEW RELEASE

American Fair

Pamela Littky

Text by Pamela Littky
 Designed by Pamela Littky
 Hardcover
 24 x 30 cm
 160 pages
 97 color and 12 b/w ills.
 English
 ISBN 978-3-86828-820-9
 Euro 39,90 / GBP 35.00 / US$ 45.00

The nostalgic glamor of the American fairs attracts visitors of all ages, every year in the USA.

The essence of the American Fair has not changed much over the past century. As the social and cultural fabric of the United States has evolved considerably, the fairs continue to draw attendance from across wide swaths of the heartland, providing a place for far-flung citizens of a particular county or state to maintain community and celebrate elements of their culture that recall some of the most nostalgic ideals of America.

Pamela Littky traveled thousands of miles across the country capturing the sights of these important seasonal markers for so many communities. Idyllic portraits of farmers and rope-and-ride spectators accompany portraits and tableaux that evoke undertones of apprehension and uncertainty; elderly faces that have seen many seasons of the fair and the youth who project determination or innocence underneath adolescent postures. The result is a breathtaking collection of photographs where wistful reflections on the past meet the challenging realities of American life in the 21st Century.

Los Angeles based photographer Pamela Littky has been producing award-winning, iconic images for over 15 years. In between shoots of world-famous actors and musicians for top commercial and editorial clients, Littky pursues personal projects that show a decidedly less glamorous but completely compelling side of American culture. Her work is held in private collections and has been exhibited in galleries across the world. Her monographs Vacancy (2014) and Villa Bonita (2016) were published successfully by Kehrer.

I have spent most of my adult life in Los Angeles, a city which has many things going for it: the weather is consistently close to perfect, it is a veritable melting pot of ethnicities and cultures, and one can ski in the morning and surf in the afternoon... or so I've been told.

The one thing that seems lacking in my adopted home, however, is a true sense of "community"—a feeling of connection among its diverse and unique populations. And as our Nation often seems to dwell more on what divides us as of late, the need to embrace our common traditions, and connect on the most basic human level, has become more important than ever.

I drove thousands of miles to experience and document this most "American" of American traditions, visiting fairs all over the country teeming with the people who call the surrounding area home. Begun in the 19th century for primarily agricultural purposes, state and county fairs remain as popular as ever. And as these traditions endure, so do the people who keep them alive.

Notwithstanding the ever-evolving social and cultural fabric of the United States, these fairs continue to draw people from all backgrounds and upbringings. They celebrate the heartland. They celebrate diversity. They celebrate community. And by doing so, they showcase the power and meaning of some of the most unifying and nostalgic ideals of our American culture and society.

— Pamela Littky

Please note:

These photographs have been copyright cleared for worldwide print and electronic reproduction in the context of reviews of the books only.

Print media: No more than THREE photographs plus the cover image from the selection can be used in total – they are not to be used on the cover or cropped. Online media may use a total of TWELVE images in a gallery.

For further details, press images, permissions and review copies, please contact the publisher's press office:

Barbara Karpf, barbara.karpf@kehrerverlag.com or
 Katharina Windfuhr, katharina.windfuhr@kehrerverlag.com
 Kehrer Verlag, Wieblinger Weg 21, 69123 Heidelberg, Germany
 Fon ++49 (0)6221/649 20-25, Fax ++49 (0)6221/64920-20
www.kehrerverlag.com www.artbooksheidelberg.com

Press images

1 Cimarron, Kansas
© Pamela Littky

2 Springfield, Illinois
© Pamela Littky

3 Gordon, Nebraska
© Pamela Littky

4 Bladen, Nebraska
© Pamela Littky

5 Calhan, Colorado
© Pamela Littky

6 Gordon, Nebraska
© Pamela Littky

7 Sedalia, Missouri
© Pamela Littky

8 Indianapolis, Indiana
© Pamela Littky

9 Cimarron, Kansas
© Pamela Littky

10 Selma, Alabama
© Pamela Littky

11 Miami, Florida
© Pamela Littky

12 Sarasota, Florida
© Pamela Littky